

Greg Batchelder
Board Vice Chair
Sky Tavern Board of Directors

Greg Batchelder was born and raised in Reno, Nevada. After graduation from Reno High, he enlisted in the Marine Corps. During this time, he received NROTC scholarship and, he attended the University of Colorado. Upon receiving a degree in Biology, he was commissioned into the United States Navy and started his adventures as a Naval Aviator flying helicopters. He has numerous overseas deployments including four to the Arabian Gulf. He is a graduate of the Naval War College. After retiring from the Navy, he returned to Reno with his wife Jennifer and two daughters, Talya and Harley. Currently he coaches for Reno High's ski team and is a certified instructor. He also sits on the Sky Tavern Board of Directors.