

Robert “Robbie” LeBeau first learned to ski on a family vacation when he was seven years old. He has had a lifelong love for the sport ever since that first time on the slopes. He earned a Bachelor’s Degree in Economics from the University of California at Santa Cruz. He has over 25 years working in the financial services industry working with high net worth individuals and families, working closely with multi-generational relationships including grantors, trustees, beneficiaries and business owners. He is currently a Vice President – Client Advisor with the Whittier Trust Company of Nevada. He also holds the Certified Trust and Financial Advisor (CTFA™) designation and is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®).